CLASS 25 . . .

This is a tale of Class Twenty-five, whose home-room "professor" is Miss Gross, the Operetta scenery-builder.

Gangway, clear out! . . . It's George Hutchison, our President! . . . And here comes Vice-President Boyd Kelly, followed by our petite brunette Secretary, Diane Brown. . . . Ah—what's this? Yes, it's blonde Barb Cummings, Secretary of the Junior High Council. . . . After this review of our executive we'd better have a look at the sports angle. . . . Up to now our main claim to fame is that our boys have won every volleyball game. . . . And by the way . . . has anyone noticed how haggard Miss Whelan looks after period three each day? . . . it's because of us!

GEO. HUTCHINSON
President

BOYD KELLY
Vice-President

DIANE BROWNE
Secretary

CLASS 26 . . .

Ours is an up-and-coming class with red-headed, bomb-shell Nan Adamson as President, crew-cutter Tim Stangroom as Vice-President, and as Secretary, mathematician Noreen Neal. . . . As usual, we are never slack in anything—not even twins, for we have two sets, Michael and Roland Cooke, and Richard and Douglas Hall. . . . Sports stars include Wally Day, Geoff Hodgekinson, and Ron Marsden, all mountaineers. . . . Our here-today-and-gone-a-week girl is Betty McDevitt. . . . Also we are very fortunate to have Mr. J. Bardsley, a basketball star, coming to Byng for the first time this year. . . . Celebrities of the class are Gerald Creemer and singing star Roma Hearn. . . . On the whole, we have a well-balanced class, with quiet Mary Chowan and Peggy-Lou Clendenning contrasted with the inseparable and effervescent Pat Larson and Margaret Pettifer.

NAN ADAMSON
President

NOREEN NEAL
Secretary

TIM STANGROOM
Vice-President

CLASS 27 . . .

Under the rigid (?) control of Mr. DesBrisay, Class Twenty-seven is known by all the teachers for its quiet and helpful attitude (it says here). . . . The executive consists of: President Sylvia Campion, Vice-President Barney Morrow, and Secretary Don Atkins. . . . The head of our science department is "Prof" Evan Meads. . . . Scholastic honors go to Alan Patterson and Marg Keith. . . . What! Back again, Evan? This time singing with choir-girl Patsy Hawthorne. . . . In the sport field we see Bruce Williams and Bert Northrup trudging up Hollyburn. . . . Can't claim any championships yet for the house teams, but our Vice-President and Stan Bednash do alright at volleyball. . . . The class joker is Brenda Coles—oh, those impersonations!!

SYLVIA CAMPION
President

BARNEY MORROW
Vice-President

DON ATKINS
Secretary

CLASS 28 . . .

Class Twenty-eight is under the leadership of President "Stewie" Black, who is assisted by Vice-President Pat Lancelles and Secretary Tom Cook. . . . Miss Higginbotham takes time out from her operetta duties to direct home-room operations. . . . Our notables are diminutive Lorne Elder, Brent "Squeak" Davis, persistent late-comer Dave White, and we mustn't forget Terry Ross. . . . Keeping up traditions in the sport world are Corky Grabowski, Bob Young, and Shirley Duff. . . . Now in conclusion, a word of caution—"Beware of Debby's espionage agents!"

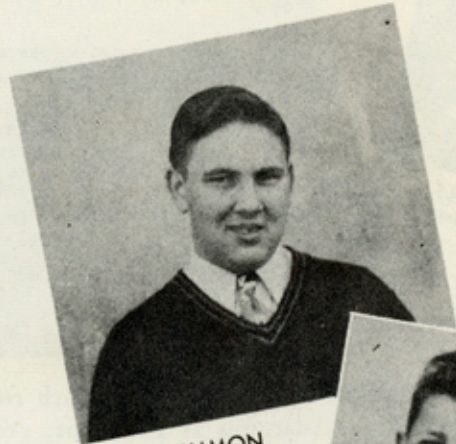

STEW BLACK
President

PAT LANCELLES
Vice-President

TOMMY COOK
Secretary

BILL NIMMON
President

KEN OZANNE
Vice-President

KEN ORR
Secretary

CLASS 29 . . .

Our class, under Miss Fallis, started with a bang, when in the sports section Junior player Norman Black and Flyweights John Stokes and Jack Davidson represented us on the rugby teams. . . . Marilyn Miller, as house captain, and Zenia Evans, team captain, upheld the girls' section. . . . The class supplied five players for the soccer team: Norman Black, Jack Hendy, Bill Hennessey, Bill Nimmon, and John Stokes. . . . Our class executive is Bill Nimmon, President; Ken Ozanne, Vice-President, and Ken Orr, Secretary. . . . Some of the other characters are Maxine Waddell, Dianne Smiley, who lives up to her name, "Muscles" Warner, Muriel Scales, Helen Welsh, Phyllis Cole and Harry Gairns, who ought to get together to stump Ripley, Gordon Scotland, who joined the Air Cadets because the war was over, and Casanova Wylie, who is Miss Whelan's gum-supplier and the only person in the school whose jokes are crummier than Mr. Rusler's.

SHIRLEY PIKE
President

IAN MCKENZIE
Vice-President

MIMI O'SHEA
Secretary

CLASS 30 . . .

Little gremlins one and all,
We work, we play the game.
Our marks go up—sometimes they fall;
For some they stay the same.
Shirley Pike's our gremlin Pres.,
She always takes the stand
To call the class to order
When they get out of hand.
Ian is our gremlin Vice,
He is our humor boy.
He likes to make up corny jokes,
And from them gets great joy.
Mimi O'Shea is our Secretary,
A very quiet gal.
She takes all notes, including cash—
So everyone's her pal.
Michael is the brainy one,
He always gets an "A"
In all his subjects, Math to French—
He earns HIS holiday!

Here are some
Bying Babies...

Can You identify them?
